Nevin Çakmaköđlu Özel, Lecturer.

Yıldız Technical University, Faculty of Art and Design, Art Department

nevin@yildiz.edu.tr

She earned a bachelor degree in Art History from Mimar Sinan Fine Arts University and then she continued masters program on Museology at Yıldız Technical University after having worked for several art galleries in İstanbul. In 1991, she became research assistant of the first academic program in Museology field in Turkey. She started to conduct research on examining the relation between the art institutions and art medium under her works, such as "Identification of the Impacts of Art Galleries on Turkish Painting". She has several publications and declarations on this field. She co-authored a book called "Müzeler ve Müzecilik Bibliyografyası" (Museums and Museology Bibliography) which consists of relevant studies in the field of museology in Turkey.

Between 1993-2000, she worked with Prof. Tomur Atagök on the exhibition process and workshops at Yıldız Technical University, Sakıp Sabancı Art Gallery. In 2000, she took several courses at PhD-Art History program that she was enrolled at Istanbul Technical University. Her academic works are mainly focused on the art institutions and cultural awareness. She also teaches several courses covering the issues such as global art history, art institutions and cultural policies. Additionally, between 2003 - 2014 she served as a coordinator of the 'Art Management Workshop' course that was accomplished with the figures from the art sector itself.

Since 1998, she has been serving as Lecturer at Art and Design Faculty, Yıldız Technical University.

Besides her academic duty, she also had administrative experiences such as 'Gallery Director' at the art gallery of Yıldız Technical University, Sakıp Sabancı Art Gallery (1993-1996), 'Coordinator' of weekend workshops of 'The Association of Painting and Sculpture Museums' at the university. Other administrative duties that she was assigned are 'Vice Program Coordinatorship' at the Art Management Program (2003-2008) and 'Art Department Vice Presidency' (2010-2013).
